DEFENDS THE NAVY

HERO OF MANILA INSISTS THAT OUR STRENGTH ON THE SEA IS NO BLUFF.

Has No Fear of War, But Recognizes Necessity of Stronger Merchant Marine, and is Heartily in Favor of Ship-Subsidy Laws.

Washington—Speaking with clear accents than the American navy Admiral Dewey assumed during an interview on Thursday, that not only is not very safe a "bluff," but that he is confident that it would give a good admiral of itself should war break out. The admiral's opinions were called forth by a statement attributed to him by a representative of the Admira-lization, who in a lecture speech at Cincinnati, Ohio, the following week said itself to be reported to have said:

"The dear Americans who are in former consideration may carry a bluff."

Desiring that he speak no war words gathering on the horizon, Ad miral Dewey discussed several phases of the war. He expressed himself as warmly in favor of ship subsidy legislation and made a strong plea for the continued upholding of the navy.

Referring to the remark attributed to Mr. Landis, Admiral Dewey said "of course, what Mr. Landis meant was that the navy would be comparatively meager in time of war without neces sary auxiliaries drawn from the inter national marine."

The admiral expressed the belief that such auxiliary legislation could not well be put in for the use of the word "subsidy," which he said many people did not like because they thought it meant to give some thing for nothing.

New Yorkers Butting In.

of commerce has instructed its officers to intervene in the proceedings before the Senate commerce com mittee, which is considering the rates of transportation throughout the country.

The proposed readjustment would tend to deprive the Atlantic seaports of their natural advantages, drawn from the Atlantic seaboard the origin of manufacturing and concentrate such manufacture in cities of the Mississippi valley, and amounts to a discrimination against the east in favor of the west, in the opinion of the chamber of commerce.

Two distinct earthquake shocks, pre ceded by vigorous tremblings and sets off waves, swept from northeast to south west over 120 miles of in mountainous territory, from Preston, Idaho, to Salt Lake City, on October 5.

Hugh M. Dearing, whose body was found in the doorway of a drug store in Salt Lake City at an early hour in the morning, died of epilepsy, according to the coroner's report. It was at first thought he had been murdered.
